AND FURTHER TESTIMONY OF RESI-DENTS OF INDIANA.

Government and Defense Rest and Arguments Are Begun-Jury to Take the Case To-Night.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 16 .- The evidence was | RIOT GROWING OUT OF A STRIKE concluded and arguments were begun today in the trial of Miller and Johns for alleged conspiracy to extort postal bribes. As six hours were allowed for arguments and only a half hour was consumed before | Girls Attack Foreigners Who Took court adjourned to-night, it is evident with five and a half hours for arguments tomorrow and additional time for the charge of the jury and motions, the case will not go to the jury until to-morrow evening. It is thought by some there will be no verdict until Monday.

The feature to-day was the testimony of the two defendants. For the first time during the week John J. JOHNS CROSS-EXAMINED. District Attorney Sherman McPherson, in resuming the cross-examination of Johns this morning, closely questioned Johns as to how Ryan could make him any trouble, also as to why he did not give Ryan the Christiancy decision of Dec. 16, when they first met on the night of Dec. 16 at Cincinnati and withheld the same until Ryan paid the balance of $4,400 the next morning. Johns denied that Miller was the one who was expected to revise Ryan's literature or that his friendship with Miller was his special qualification. He said his telegram to Miller reading: "Our first proposition accepted," did not refer to the written contracts with Ryan, but to another matter. Johns was again questioned as to his bank book and checks, but nothing new was brought out. MILLER'S DEALINGS WITH JOHNS. Miller testified that when he returned to Indiana last September on legal business and again in October for campaign work he roet Johns and talked freely with him, but there never was any reference to the Ryan case or any other matter before the department until after the election and he had returned to Washington. On Nov. 29 he received a telegram from Johns to enter his name as attorney for Ryan & Co. That was the day after Ryan and Johns met at

Terre Haute.
Miller told all about the hearing of the Ryan case, Nov. 11, when Christiancy sat as judge, Miller appearing for the gov-ernment, assisted by Huebener and Judge Miller Outcault, of Cincinnati, as counsel for Ryan, who also was present. Miller then advocated that a fraud order issue against Ryan, but on the presentations of Outcault that Ryan & Co. would eliminate all objectionable features of the turf commission and guarantee enough deposits to pay all certificates, Christiancy allowed the concern to continue on the observance of certain stipulations that were made in writing. Miller testified about all the subsequent proceedings up to the report made to Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow on Nov. 14, and then to the closing of the case, Nov. 29, when Christiancy's attention was called to all that the witness had done.

Miller testified that the much-disputed supplemental report of the postoffice inspectors on the Ryan case was delivered to him on Dec. 9, when Christiancy was with him in their office, and that the latter read it and said there was nothing new in it and directed Miller to write a letter on the Ryan case, similar to the ruling in the Arnold case, but to write it with "a string to it." Immediately following Mr. Kern Mayor Holtzman spoke. He said in part:

RENEWS HIS PLEDGES. "I have always been proud of Indianapolis. This is a large city, a great city, the management of whose affairs requires careful thought and attention. Wilson's subject was "Indianapolis as a Manufacturing City." Mr. Wilson has just returned from an extended tour through England and Europe. He spoke at some length upon the fact, as he sees it, that the United States has a great commercial rival in Germany. He approached his subject more by comparing this city and this country with Germany than in a direct way. Mr. Wilson says the workingmen of the United States must have more education in their special lines of work if this country is to compete successfully with Germany. In that country especially, he said, the science of manufacturing is practiced to a much greater degree than in

In the iron and steel manufactories of Germany for example, he said, use is made of many things that are cast aside and made no use of in this county. NEW YORK, Oct. 16 .- The "Restoration Host," under the leadership of John Alexander Dowie, garrisoned Madison-square Garden to-day and completed preparations to sally to-morrow on the works of the "enemy."

The first detachment, numbering about four hundred, arrived early in the morning and the remaining trains followed during the day and evening. Leaving the ferryboat the crusaders boarded special cars which were in waiting and proceeded direct

'He denied that he intended to raise a fund of $50,000,000 while here and declined to say whether he was going to found another Zion City here. It is intended to begin the house-to-house visitations to-morrow and the first public service will be held in the Garden on Sunday. ATTRACTED MUCH ATTENTION. The crusaders attracted much attention when they detrained at the railway station and emerged from the ferry house. The men were all dressed in a uniform resembling that worn by the United States infantry. The women did not wear uniforms. One of the features of the party was the junior cheir, consisting of about fifty little boys. There also was a drum and fife corps of thirty men dressed in khaki uniforms. Thirty per cent. of the party were women and children, of all nationalities. Some of the trunks of the party were decorated with small gold crosses printed on white paper and stuck on the baggage. When the "host" reached Madison-square Garden each member presented at the entrance an identification card bearing the photograph of the holder, and every person was carefully scrutinized by Director General Mitchell. All had expected to breakfast in the garden, but it had been impossible to make provisions to-day for any meals before 5 p. m., and they left the garden in search of a meal in neighboring restaurants. Scatmay be taken. A number of the speakers | tered around the entrance to the garden at the session to-day favored this, saying were the Zion guards, each dressed in a black uniform and a black peaked cap. In the belt that they wore was the usual sword strap, but instead of a weapon the strap held a Bible.

Among the most prominent of those who arrived to-day was Elder Abraham F. Lee. general recorder of the Zion restoration host, who has charge of the restoration arrived were Charles E. "General" Dowie, or Elijah, as he calls himself, arrived on a special train, accompanied by his wife and son, Carl F. Stern. chief of police of Zion City, and Robert Massey. All registered at the Plaza Hotel After a rest Mr. Dowie proceeded to Madson-square Garden, where about 3,000 of the host awaited him. When he stepped into the vast hall the assemblage rose and faced the overseer. Holding up his hand he said: "Peace be to thee." "Peace to thee be multiplied," saswered the great crowd in one voice.

DOWIE ANNOYED. Dr. Dowie then made his way to the balcony, asked for a roll call and assigned the audience to sections of the hall, separating them according to the trains by which they arrived. His orders were frequently interrupted by the hammering of carpenters still at work preparing the hall for the use of the Zionists, but at first little attention was paid to his orders to desist hammering. When Dr. Dowle sent an overseer to ask them to stop they sent word that they were working to keep a contract and could not stop. The roll was then called, Mr. Dowie then gathered the reporters together and talked to them for over an nour. He said that his mission here is one of peace and that during the three weeks that the followers of the Christian Catholic Church are here they expect to visit every family in this city at least twice. He said also that he came in the capacity of the prophet Elijah and in accordance with the revelation he made in 1901 to an audience of 7,000 people in the Auditorium. Chicago, and promised to explain more fully what the revelation means. He said that he is a law-abiding citizen of this country, is opposed to secret societics and only asks for fair play for himself and his people. He said further he had fought many battles against wrong and had always won, that his coming to New York was not a money-making scheme and he did not care if the people here do not pay his gas bills. "I have not come to New York as the representative of a powerful ecclesiastical body." he declared, "but in my prophetic capacity. I care not for your smiles. am as indifferent to ridicule as to any other wrong. Your facile pens should never he harnessed to ridicule. There is a place for ridicule and satire, but I say your pens should never be used in ridiculing any man who believes he has a solemn message to humanity. It never pays to fight against God. I am not going to dodge anything. I am a very open man and have no conceal-
